Dear Admiral Turner

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to your organization for the extremely valuable assistance rendered to the United States Air Force Special Operations School through the continuing efforts of

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] has been one of our most distinguished guest lecturers for the Unconventional Warfare Course which is presented four times a year to a highly select group of students from each of the services. These students are chosen for worldwide managerial positions in Special Operations/Unconventional Warfare joint and service planning staffs. [REDACTED] dedicated contributions over the last three years have been superlative and have provided our students with a perceptive insight into the contemporary operational and training interfaces that our organizations should enjoy.

The primary peacetime mission of the 1st Special Operations Wing is to train personnel in the fields of Special Operations/Unconventional Warfare. Your agency, through the outstanding and professional efforts of [REDACTED] has certainly provided a maturity and enrichment to the curriculum of our USAF Special Operations School and an illuminating inspiration to our wing staff.

Please accept my sincere appreciation for [REDACTED] efforts on the part of your organization to provide our officers with an inculcation of values which distinguish the responsive and responsible officers of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Respectfully

Edward Levell, Jr.
EDWARD LEVELL, Jr, Colonel, USAF
